

The Word is muddied Prophetic word from April 3rd 2008

Yes the lord is beginning to shake things in the heavens and the earth in every aspect of life, so that which is going to be shaken will be shaken. The shakings will be significant in the southern parts of the USA first, only after the south is shaken completely the north will see the starting of the shakings. There will be hurricanes and devastations and turmoil, turmoil in business turmoil in government, turmoil in schools , turmoil in churches and everywhere there is going to be turmoil for he is going to shake everything that will be shaken and once the turmoil is done 2013.

Right now there is water that are people drinking from, the thirst of the people are being filled by the stagnant water in different places. The water is dirty and not clear, the water is muddy but the thirsty are drinking the water as it is. But between now and 2013 which will be very significant year now till then and in the midst in the turmoil there the land becomes very dry and people become thirsty. Then all the muddy waters will get dried up. The land will be Dry and be there will sweet cool waters will flow and the sweet holy spirit will start flowing and the water will be flowing everywhere, now this water will start refreshing and start filling the land with cool streams. There will be the rivers in the desert and streams in the desert.

Prepare Now

Prepare for a mighty outpouring even now says the Lord. In the midst of a dry and thirsty land my soul longs for you and my flesh thirsts for you

Ps 63.1 –

Raising an army of Gideon's for Jesus
